Stylish Decorative Wiring Accessories

Decorative Wiring Accessories

Contactum began life in 1936 and is one of a few remaining manufacturers of electrical wiring accessories and circuit protection products in the UK, and manufacturing still continues today at its factory in Cricklewood, London.

Our products are used widely by Electrical Contractors and Electricians alike in many applications and over the years has met the growing request for new, modern, stylish wiring accessories.

Decorative Wiring Accessories by Contactum offers a blend of style, choice and functionality. Its inspirational designs cater to all tastes and properties, from the discerning homeowner to commercial property installations.

Offering an extensive range of switches, sockets, dimmer controllers, media and data units; development of Contactum's enviable eye-catching line of decorative switches and sockets continues apace with the addition of an upgraded 4.8A USB charging switched socket; thus ensuring the brand is the first choice for many specifiers and architects across the UK.
